

■ Arrivals from Nogales bring the information that the Mexican government has canceled the concession held by the Sonora News company of Nogales, denying that concern the exclusive privilege of selling newspapers, periodicals, books and fruits on trains. The action was based upon the ground that the contract was contrary to the new constitution, which forbids monopolies of any kind. The Sonora News company, owned by Americans, has held this concession many years.