

FUENTES FIGHTS IN PARRAL MEX.

Proved to Be an Expert Fighter, but Exhibition Was Very Unsatisfactory on Account of Poor Bulls—Interesting News Notes.

Parral, Chih., March 10.—The Campania Fundadera de Hierro y Acero of Monterey have absorbed several fine manganize properties in the El Valle district, and has begun extensive development. Mr. J. F. Johnson, the company's local representative, has placed a force of men at work on the properties.

Miss Beatrice Reynolds is quite ill.

The bull fight given by the world renown Fuentes in the arena at this place in February proved anything but satisfactory. That the fault could not be placed upon the captain was shown by his dextrerous work when the occasion was presented and could be secured. He proved himself most thoroughly deserving of his fame. The blame would be most difficult to place were such a matter required, since the purchasers of the bulls secured them under a positive guarantee of their fighting qualities—yet this did not re-
