

LOCAL ITEMS

Sheriff Harry J. Saxon has been on the sick list this week.

Mr. Lee Reagan and interesting little family spent last Sunday in Patagonia, guests of the family of Mr. James Reagan, returning home on the evening train.

Dr. Sam S. Butler of Magdalena, Sonora, passed north yesterday morning, going to the Belene copper mines in the Moctezuma district, Sonora, on professional business.

Hon. J. A. Harrison, chairman of the board of supervisors, is reported as being ill, at his ranch home, Bellotal, seven miles north-east of town. We hope for his speedy, complete recovery.

Mrs. W. C. Budge has returned from an extended visit to Tucson where she was the guest of Mrs. A. M. Franklin. Since her return the ably known in Nogales. He owns a pleasant home in Nogales, Sonora, where each summer he spends considerable of his time, the latch string always being out to his friends.

Last Monday at the Park railway crossing the small delivery wagon of the Washington Trading Company, was struck by a passing engine and smashed into nice kindling wood of proper length for the ordinary cook stove. Horse and driver escaped injury. Manager Bethell of the Washington Trading Company will ask the railway company to pay damages.

Jesse Boden, millman at the Black Mountain Mining Company's Cerro Prieto gold mines, out thirty-five miles east from Magdalena, Sonora, was in Nogales Wednesday, having come up to the line to meet Mrs. Boden, who arrived from California. Mr. and Mrs. Boden continued south to Magdalena the same night. They will make their home at Cerro Prieto.

brought to the city and an inquest held by Coroner C. A. Gildea. Deceased was an old-time resident of this county, having resided here many years. He was well known by all old settlers. His sudden, untimely passing is regretted by many Americans and Mexican who knew him during his long residence here.

Ferd VanMourick, manager of the Sonora News Company's Nogales and Cananea branches, has returned from the big copper camp, where he spent several days with Auditor Poston, who has returned to Monterrey, Mexico, where he makes his headquarters. Mr. VanMourick reports the big copper camp flourishing and says his company is doing an immense business there. Colonel James Dawson Fisher, president of the company, has returned to Juarez, Mexico, where he is in charge of the company's business. The colonel greatly enjoyed his visit to Nogales.