

Manager Fred VanMourick of the Sonora News Company's Nogales store and the big Cananea branch, returned the first of the week from a visit to Cananea, where he had been on company business. He says the camp is lively and his branch there is doing an enormous business.