

Alfred Truman and wife of Brookville, Pa., are visiting Mr. J. I. Long and family. Mr. Truman was an associate of Mr. Long in business in the state of Pennsylvania. This is Mr. Truman's first visit to the south and west, and he is much impressed with Parral and its mineral surroundings.

The Quadras mine, the property of J. Freudenstein, has been sold to eastern capital.

La Union, managed by S. Cragoe, after repeated tests have found pan amalgamation the method of treating the ores of their mine, and as a consequence have placed an order for a No. 4 Krupp-Ball mill. This will greatly increase this already heavy producer to a large output.

L. F. Poston, superintendent of the Sonora News company of Monterey, and who has business and mining interests in the city, arrived several days ago.